RULES OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Adopted January 11, 2006

I. Organization.

Elections.

Rule 1. At the elections in the House, the voting shall be by use of the electronic voting system or, if it is inoperable, viva voce by response to the call of names, and the vote shall be recorded in the Journal. Only one person shall be chosen at a time. If, on the first voting, no one receives a majority, the person having the smallest number of votes shall not be voted for on the next voting and so on until someone shall receive a majority of the whole vote. If the election is by joint vote of the two houses, messages shall be exchanged for each voting announcing the names of persons in nomination. A committee of three from each house shall compare the votes and ascertain and report the result.

At the election for any judgeship to the Supreme Court of Virginia, the Court of Appeals of Virginia, Circuit Courts, and Courts not of Record, no nominee shall be offered to the House unless that nominee has been interviewed by the House Courts of Justice Committee and subsequently certified as qualified for election.

The Speaker.

Rule 2. The House of Delegates shall choose its own Speaker from among the members of the House. The Speaker shall be elected in even-numbered years for a term of two years. The nominations for Speaker shall be viva voce without debate and no second shall be required to place a name in nomination. Once nominations are closed, the election of the Speaker shall be a matter of privilege and shall be conducted immediately and shall not be debated. The voting for Speaker shall be by use of the electronic voting system or, if it is inoperable, viva voce by response to the call of names, and the vote shall be recorded in the Journal. Each member shall vote for only one nominee for Speaker in each round of voting. If, on the first voting, no one receives a majority, the person having the smallest number of votes shall not be voted for on the next voting and so on until someone shall receive a majority of the whole vote. Once elected, the Speaker shall not be removed from his office during his term except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the elected membership of the House.

1 The Speaker may appoint to the Chair any member who shall exercise its 2 functions for the time. However, no member, by virtue of such appointment, shall 3 preside for a longer time than three consecutive days. During such appointment
4 the Speaker may participate in the debates.

5
6 If the Speaker be absent, and have named no one to act in his stead, the duties
7 shall be performed by the chairman of one of the standing committees taking 8 precedence in the order in which the committees are named in Rule 16.

9
10 Rule 3. The Speaker shall take the Chair every day precisely at the hour to 11 which the House shall have adjourned on the preceding legislative day. He shall 12 immediately call the House to order. After divine services are performed, he shall 13 direct that the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America be 14 recited, and he shall direct that the roll of members be taken, pursuant to Rule 32,
15 and the names of those members present entered upon the Journal. A quorum 16 being present, he shall proceed with the business of the day. The Speaker shall 17 have the power to supervise and correct the Journal. The Speaker, having 18 examined the Journal of the proceedings of the last day's sitting and approved the 19 same, shall announce to the House his approval of the Journal. The Speaker's 20 approval of the Journal shall be deemed to be agreed to subject to a vote on 21 agreeing to the Speaker's approval on the demand of any member, which vote, if 22 decided in the affirmative, shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider. It shall 23 be in order to offer one motion that the Journal be read only if the Speaker's
24 approval of the Journal is not agreed to, and such motion shall be determined
25 without debate and shall not be subject to a motion to reconsider. Upon the last 26 day of the session, the Journal for that day being examined and found correct shall 27 be signed by the Speaker and the Clerk. The said Journals, when so signed, shall 28 be the authentic record of the proceedings of the House.

29
30 Rule 4. The Speaker shall have a general direction of the House Chamber with 31 power, in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in such part thereof as may be 32 appropriated to spectators, to have the same cleared. Representatives of news 33 media, wishing to report the proceedings of the House, may be admitted by the 34 Speaker, who shall assign them to such places in the House Chamber as shall not 35 interfere with the convenience of the members.

36
37 Rule 5. All enrolled bills and joint resolutions proposing amendments to the 38 Constitution shall be signed by the Speaker and all writs and warrants issued by 39 order of the House shall be under his hand and seal, attested by the Clerk.

The Clerk.

Rule 6. A Clerk shall be elected by the House in even-numbered years and shall be deemed to continue in office until another is chosen. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Clerk during a recess of the General Assembly, a successor to fill said vacancy shall be elected by the members of the Committee on Privileges and Elections at a meeting to be called by the chairman of the committee or, in his absence, by the senior ranking member of the committee able and willing to act in calling the meeting. At least five days' written notice by mail of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting shall be given to all members of said committee, and the person receiving a majority of the votes of the members of said committee present and voting shall be deemed to be elected to fill said vacancy.

Rule 6(a). The Clerk shall have authority, with the approval of the Speaker, to employ personnel necessary to accomplish the work of the House subject to such terms and conditions as shall be deemed appropriate by the Speaker; such personnel may be removed by the Clerk with the approval of the Speaker. The Clerk shall be charged with the clerical business of the House and its committees.

Rule 6(b). The Clerk shall be charged with the duty of assigning each member to a seat in the House Chamber and office space. No seat or office space assigned to and occupied by a member who is reelected shall be changed without such member's consent.

Rule 7. The Clerk shall perform all the duties of his office under the direction of the Speaker. He shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the House, have the same in proper form to be signed as provided by Rule 3, and submit it daily to the Speaker in time to be examined before the next assembling of the House. He shall keep at the Clerk's table, during the sittings of the House, a calendar or docket so arranged as to show the condition and progress of the business of the House. He shall provide to each member before the assembling of the House each day, a printed calendar of pending bills and a list of all bills offered on the preceding day, under Rule 37, with the names of the patrons, titles of the bills, and the committees to which the same have been referred. After amendments have been agreed to by the House, he shall see that they are handled only by the clerks at the desk or the clerks charged with the duty of engrossing bills until such amendments have been duly engrossed and verified.

Rule 8. The Clerk shall keep accounts of the compensation of the members, officials and employees of the House, and shall from time to time certify the same to the Comptroller. He shall provide the stationery required for the business of the 1 House and for the official use of the members. He shall also provide postage for 2 the official use of the members within the limitations established by the Rules

3 Committee. The claims shall be certified for payment as provided by law. He 4 shall keep detailed accounts of all these transactions, which shall be at all times
5 open to inspection by members of the House.

6
7 Rule 9. The Clerk shall procure for the members, when required, certificates 8 for pay and mileage, and, at their request, collect and pay over to those entitled the 9 money due upon such certificates.

10
11 Sergeant at Arms.

12
13 Rule 10. A Sergeant at Arms shall be elected by the House and continue in 14 office during its pleasure. He shall have as his assistants during sessions of the 15 House doorkeepers and pages who shall be appointed by the Speaker. Pages shall 16 be appointed annually and shall be thirteen or fourteen years old at the time of their 17 initial appointment. They shall be ineligible for reappointment after serving for 18 two years.

19
20 Rule 11. The Sergeant at Arms shall, with his assistants, attend upon the House
21 during its sitting, and execute its commands, together with all such process, issued 22 by its authority, as shall be directed to him by the Speaker.

23
24 Rule 12. The Sergeant at Arms shall, under the direction of the Speaker, have 25 charge of the policing of the Hall and prevent any interruption of the business of 26 the House by disorder within or without. He shall distribute among the members 27 all papers printed for their use and give such attendance upon them during the 28 sittings of the House as will promote their comfort and facilitate the business of the 29 House.

30
31 Immediately prior to the convening of every session, he shall clear the floor of 32 the House of all persons other than those specified under Rule 83 who are 33 authorized to be there during each session.

34
35 Rule 13. The Sergeant at Arms shall attend to receiving and dispatching all 36 messages in the House Chamber intended for or sent by members and make such 37 arrangement as to promote the convenience of the members. He shall attend to the 38 display of the Mace during sessions of the House and direct all persons not entitled

2 membership or nonmembership in the majority party caucus. The apportionment 3 of members on all standing committees shall be according to the same ratio of 4 members in the House of Delegates who are members or nonmembers of the 5 majority party caucus. If such ratio would represent a fractional number of the 6 committee membership assigned to the majority party caucus, then the number of 7 majority party caucus members on standing committees shall be the next highest 8 whole number of committee members. For the purposes of this rule only, members 9 who do not caucus with the majority party caucus or the largest minority party
10 caucus shall be deemed part of the majority party caucus.

11
12 Rule 16(b). The Speaker shall strive to appoint from each congressional district
13 at least one member who represents that congressional district on all standing
14 committees with the exception of Rules.

15
16 Rule 17. A majority shall constitute a quorum for committees. Each committee 17 shall meet pursuant to a regular meeting schedule as approved by the Speaker. In 18 addition to a committee's regular scheduled meeting(s), a committee chairman may 19 call additional meetings. It shall be the duty of a committee to meet on call of a 20 majority of the committee's members if the chairman is absent or declines to call a 21 meeting. However, additional committee meetings may not be scheduled that are 22 in conflict with another committee's regularly scheduled meeting time. No
23 committee shall meet while the House is in session without special leave granted
24 by the Speaker.

25
26 Rule 17(a). The chairman of any standing committee may appoint
27 subcommittees provided any such subcommittee shall consist of no fewer than five 28 members, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of 29 business.

30
31 Rule 17(b). The chairman of any standing committee may appoint ad hoc 32 subcommittees of less than five members to consider no more than one bill or 33 resolution, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum to conduct business.

34
35 Rule 17(c). Between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through 36 Friday, no subcommittee of a standing committee except for the Appropriations or 37 Rules Committee shall meet opposite another standing committee unless the parent 38 committee foregoes meeting at its designated time to allow its subcommittees to 39 meet.

1 Rule 18. The several standing committees shall consider and report on matters
2 specially referred to them and, whenever practicable, suggest such legislation as 3 may be germane to the duties of the committee. The chairman shall have 4 discretion to determine when, and if, legislation shall be heard before the 5 committee. The chairman, at his discretion, may refer legislation for consideration
6 to a subcommittee. If referred to a subcommittee, the legislation shall be 7 considered by the subcommittee. If the subcommittee does not recommend such 8 legislation by a majority vote, the chairman need not consider the legislation in the 9 full committee. It shall be the duty of each committee to inquire into the condition 10 and administration of the laws relating to the subjects which it has in its charge; to 11 investigate the conduct and look to the responsibility of all public officers and 12 agents concerned; and to suggest such measures as will correct abuses, protect the 13 public interests, and promote the public welfare.

14
15 Any committee of the House may, at its discretion, confer with a committee of 16 the Senate having under consideration the same subject. No select committee shall 17 be appointed to consider any subject falling properly within the province of a 18 standing committee.

19
20 Rule 18(a). When a question is before the committee, no motion shall be 21 received unless specially provided for, except to adjourn, to pass by, to lay upon 22 the table, to postpone for a specified time or purpose, to refer or rerefer, to amend, 23 to strike from the docket, or report; which several motions shall have precedence in 24 the order in which they are arranged and each such motion shall be required to be 25 seconded.

26
27 When a question has been decided, it may be reconsidered on the motion of any 28 member who voted with the prevailing side provided it be made on the same day or 29 if such motion has not been communicated to the House, such motion may be 30 made no later than the adjournment of the next regularly scheduled meeting of the 31 full committee.

32
33 Rule 18(b). Committees shall in all cases report by bill or resolution, with or 34 without amendment or amendments, in such form that, if passed or agreed to, it 35 will carry into effect their recommendations; but no papers returned therewith shall 36 be printed unless the committee shall so recommend. Every bill shall be printed, 37 as provided in Rule 37. Bills may be considered in executive session, but final 38 vote thereon shall be in open session.

39
40 Rule 18(c). A recorded vote of members upon each measure sent to the floor, 41 including those measures reported and referred by committee, shall be taken and 42 the name and number of those voting for, against, or abstaining shall be reported
43 with the bill or resolution and ordered printed on the Calendar.

1 Rule 18(d). Reports of the committees may be handed to the Clerk at any time
2 and may be disposed of in the morning hour. If, in the judgment of the Speaker, 3 any report of a committee requires immediate action he may bring it to the 4 attention of the House at any time.
5

6 Rule 18(e). No member shall be excluded from any meeting of a committee, 7 subcommittee, joint subcommittee, or interim study committee except as 8 hereinafter provided for the maintenance of order. If an electronic meeting is 9 authorized by the chairman, no member shall be excluded from participating by 10 electronic communication means, and members participating by electronic 11 communication means shall not be counted in attendance for purposes of a 12 quorum. The chairman of the committee shall maintain order and decorum, and 13 the business of the committee shall be conducted at all times in accordance with 14 the Rules of the House.
15

16 Rule 19. The chairman of the committee, or the majority of the membership of 17 the committee, may call meetings of the committee during the interim to study, call 18 hearings, or to consider such other matters as may be germane to the duties of the 19 committee.
20

21 Rule 20. The chairman of any standing committee is authorized to seek and 22 obtain the services of citizens of the Commonwealth whose function will be to 23 participate with such committees or subcommittees thereof in reviewing legislation 24 or in performing any referred study or study initiated by the committee or its 25 chairman.
26

27 Citizens so appointed to serve may receive a daily compensation as provided in 28 the Appropriation Act and reimbursement for their actual expenses incurred in the 29 performance of services for the committee. For this purpose and for such other 30 expenses as may be occasioned by the conduct of any committee study, payments
31 shall be made from the general appropriations to the House of Delegates.
32

33 Persons who are asked by a committee chairman to appear before a committee 34 or subcommittee to offer expert testimony may receive reimbursement for their 35 actual and reasonable expenses if approved by the chairman and the Speaker.
36

37 Rule 21. The conduct of the business of any subcommittee of any House
38 committee, any joint subcommittee of House and Senate committees, and any 39 interim study committee created by a House measure shall be governed in 40 accordance with the Rules of the House. If a House measure and a Senate measure 41 create the same study, the conduct of business of the study shall be governed by 42 the rules of the house of the chairman of the study, or in the case of co-chairmen, 43 the rules of the house as agreed upon by the co-chairmen.

1 Rule 22. Any bill or resolution introduced in an even-numbered year and not 2 reported to the House of Delegates by the committee to which it has been referred,
3 may be continued on the agenda of the committee for hearings and committee
4 action during the interim between regular sessions and not otherwise. The 5 committee shall report, prior to the adjournment sine die of the House of 6 Delegates, such bills or resolutions as shall be continued and the Clerk of the 7 House of Delegates shall enter upon the Journal the fact that such bill or resolution
8 has been continued. Any bill or resolution that has been continued and 9 subsequently reported from a committee shall be placed upon the Calendar of the 10 House of Delegates.

11
12 The House of Delegates, upon consideration of any bill or resolution on the 13 Calendar, may rerefer the bill to the committee reporting the same and direct the 14 committee to continue the bill or resolution until the following odd-numbered year 15 regular session and hold such hearings and render such further consideration of the 16 bill or resolution as the committee may deem proper.

17
18 The chairman of the committee, or the majority of the membership of the 19 committee, may call meetings of the committee during the interim to study, call 20 hearings, and consider any continued bill or resolution, or to consider such other 21 matters as may be germane to the duties of the committee.

22
23 (The provisions of this rule relating to legislative continuity between sessions
24 shall be subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7 of the Constitution of 25 Virginia.)

26 27 Standards of Conduct.

28
29 Rule 23. There shall be a subcommittee on Standards of Conduct of the Rules
30 Committee consisting of four members, two of whom shall be members of the 31 majority caucus and two of whom shall be nonmembers of the majority caucus, 32 appointed by the chairman, which shall review annually members' statements of 33 economic interests and consider any request by a member for an advisory opinion 34 with respect to the general propriety of any current or proposed conduct of such 35 member.

36
37 Rule 24. The Privileges and Elections Committee shall receive and investigate
38 any charges or complaints brought against any member of the House of Delegates 39 in the performance of his duties or the discharge of his responsibilities and 40 recommend to the House such action as it may deem appropriate to establish and 41 enforce standards of conduct for members.

Committee of the Whole.

2
3 Rule 25. When the House shall go into the Committee of the Whole, the 4 Speaker may vacate the Chair and appoint a member to preside in Committee; the 5 other officers shall attend, and the Rules of the House shall be observed and 6 enforced in Committee, as far as applicable, except that the previous question shall 7 not be ordered.

8
9 Rule 26. If the Committee of the Whole arise before the consideration of the 10 subject referred is concluded, the same shall be reported back and have its place in 11 order as unfinished business of the House. When it shall be again reached in order,
12 unless it be otherwise disposed of, the House, after making such orders as it may 13 deem proper in relation to the business before the Committee, shall stand again
14 resolved into the Committee of the Whole, and so on until the business therein be 15 disposed of.

16
17 Rule 27. Nothing shall be in order in the Committee of the Whole except such 18 matters as may be specially referred to it by the House.

19
20 Rule 28. Whenever the Committee of the Whole shall find itself without a 21 quorum, the chairman shall cause the roll to be called and thereupon the 22 Committee shall rise, and the chairman shall report the fact and the names of the 23 absentees, which shall be entered upon the Journal of the House.

24
25 Rule 29. The motion to go into Committee of the Whole, and the motion to 26 discharge the Committee, shall not be debated.

II. Attendance and Adjournment.Attendance.

27
28
29
30
31
32 Rule 30. No member shall absent himself from the service of the House unless 33 he has leave granted by the Speaker or is sick or otherwise unable to attend and 34 such leave shall be entered upon the Journal.

35
36 Rule 31. Any ten members or more including the Speaker, if there is one, and 37 he is present, shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members by a 38 call of the House.

39
40 Rule 32. The roll of the House shall be taken by the use of the electronic voting
41 system or, if it is inoperable, by viva voce by response to the call of names
42 arranged and called in alphabetical order except that the Speaker shall be called 43 last.

1 Rule 33. The electronic voting system may be used for a call of the House;
2 however, if it is inoperable, the call of the House shall be by viva voce, the names
3 of the members shall be first called over by the Clerk, and the absentees noted;
4 after which the names of the absentees shall be again called over. The doors shall 5 then be shut and those for whom no excuse or insufficient excuses are made may,
6 by order of those present, if ten in number, be taken into custody as they appear or 7 may be sent for and taken into custody, wherever to be found, by the Sergeant at 8 Arms or his assistants, or by special messengers to be appointed for that purpose.

9
10 Rule 34. When a member shall be discharged from custody and admitted to his 11 seat the House shall determine whether such discharge shall be with or without 12 payment of fees and expenses.

13 14 Adjournment.

15
16 Rule 35. Any member or members may adjourn from day to day. A motion to 17 adjourn and a motion to fix the time for which the House will adjourn shall always 18 be in order and be decided without debate.

19 20 III. Introduction of Business.

21 22 Messages, Reports, and Communications.

23
24 Rule 36. Messages from the Governor and reports and communications from 25 any other public officer or agent may be received at any time. If, in the judgment 26 of the Speaker, they require immediate action they may be brought at once to the 27 attention of the House. Otherwise, they shall lie upon the Speaker's table and be 28 disposed of in the morning hour. The same rule shall be observed with regard to 29 messages from the Senate.

30 31 Introducing Legislation.

32
33 Rule 37. Members having bills or resolutions to present may, at any time, hand
34 them to the Clerk in triplicate, one "original" copy endorsed by one or more
35 members with their names. Any bill or joint resolution introduced in the House
36 may show as "Senate Patrons" the signatures of members of the Senate. Any bill, 37 joint resolution, or resolution filed prior to the commencement of the session in 38 which it is to be considered may have the names of co-patrons signed to the 39 measure by the chief patron, provided that each such co-patron expressly 40 authorized the chief patron to sign for such co-patron and the chief patron plainly 41 marks such signatures on the original copy of the measure as being signed by the 42 chief patron.

1 No bill expressly amending an existing law shall be offered by any member
2 unless or until both the original and duplicate copies thereof have been prepared so
3 as to indicate deletions and additions. The form for deletions and additions shall 4 set forth the material deleted with lines through such material and by underscoring
5 the words added, before they are received in the Senate or House of Delegates. The 6 stricken material and underscorings or italics in the printed bills, enrolled bills, and 7 printed Acts shall not be considered evidence of all amendments to any bill or 8 existing statute but merely as an aid for quick reference to amended portions.
9 Nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the use of stricken 10 material or underscoring where new words are substituted for existing words and 11 the new words or the omission of words do not change the sense or meaning of the 12 act.

13
14 The Clerk shall, under the direction of the Speaker, refer all such "original"
15 papers to the proper committee and enter the fact, with the names of the members
16 presenting them, upon the Journal. Such bills shall be printed, unless otherwise 17 ordered by the House, and numbered in the order in which they are handed to the 18 Clerk.

19
20 The Speaker shall review all legislation introduced in the House or 21 communicated to the House for its action to determine if such legislation is in 22 conflict with Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia. If such 23 legislation is determined to be in conflict, the Speaker may withhold committee 24 referral of the legislation.

25
26 The designation of "House Bill," "House Joint Resolution," or "House 27 Resolution" shall not be changed after a bill or resolution is introduced in the 28 House. Nor shall the designation of "Senate Bill" or "Senate Joint Resolution" be 29 changed or amended after the bill or resolution is received by the House. In 30 addition, no bill or resolution introduced for a purpose other than to direct or 31 request a study shall be amended for the purpose of directing or requesting a study
32 unless authorized by unanimous consent of the members of the House.

33
34 Rule 38. No bill, joint resolution, or resolution calling for information from the 35 Governor or other public officer or agent shall be introduced, considered, or acted
36 upon otherwise than is provided by Rule 37 and shall not be acted upon until it 37 shall have been examined and reported upon by a committee.

38
39 Rule 39. Any other resolution or motion upon which a member may desire the 40 judgment of the House, or any action other than a reference to a standing
41 committee, may be presented to the House in the morning hour after the business
42 on the Speaker's table is disposed of. A recorded vote shall be required on a 43 resolution authorizing a study or an expenditure of funds. To obtain immediate

1 consideration of any resolution other than a procedural or a memorial or 2 commending resolution, without reference to a standing committee, the vote of 3 two-thirds of the members elected, as required by Rule 81, shall be a recorded 4 vote.

5
6 Rule 39(a). All memorial or commending joint resolutions or resolutions shall 7 conform to the procedure set forth by the Clerk of the House and shall not be 8 referred under Rule 37, unless so ordered by the Speaker or by majority vote of the 9 House on motion of a member, but shall be placed on the Calendar.

10 11 IV. Order of Business.

12 13 The Morning Hour.

14
15 Rule 40. After the approval and signing of the Journal, a time, to be called the 16 morning hour, shall be devoted to the dispatch of business upon the Speaker's table
17 and to resolutions presented under Rule 39. The business on the Speaker's table
18 shall be disposed of in such order as the Speaker deems best, except as may be 19 herein otherwise provided, or as the House may at any time order.

20
21 Rule 41. The annual message of the Governor shall be laid before the House as 22 soon as it is received. It shall be printed for the use of the House and be considered 23 by the several standing committees without any special order therefor.

24
25 Rule 42. All other messages from the Governor may be referred by the Speaker 26 to the proper committees. The same rule shall be observed as to reports and 27 communications from other public officers.

28
29 Rule 43. Bills and resolutions originating in the Senate and not requiring 30 immediate action shall be read or printed on the Calendar by title the first time
31 when received and referred to their appropriate committees, unless the House 32 directs otherwise.

33
34 Rule 44. All bills reported from committee, pursuant to Rule 18(c), shall be 35 transferred to the Calendar and the reading or printing on the Calendar of the titles
36 as reported shall constitute the first reading or printing of the House bills and the 37 second reading or printing of the Senate bills as required by the Constitution.

38
39 Rule 45. All other reports from committees shall be considered and disposed of 40 in the order in which the Speaker presents them, unless the House directs 41 otherwise.

1 Rule 46. A member presenting a resolution under Rule 39 shall be allowed five 2 minutes in which to explain his wishes in relation to it, after which the question on 3 referring to a standing committee shall be taken without debate.

4
5 Rule 47. Printing recommended by committees under Rule 18(b) shall be 6 ordered by the Speaker, unless the House directs otherwise. Under such order no
7 more copies of any document shall be printed than is provided by law.

8
9 Rule 48. Once the morning hour expires, the House shall proceed to the 10 business of the House as defined in Rule 49; however, the Speaker shall be 11 permitted, without objection, to return to the morning hour for the purpose of 12 recognizing any distinguished visitor or other individual defined in Rule 83 that 13 may be present and seated on the floor or in the gallery.

14 15 The Calendar.

16
17 Rule 49. At the expiration of the morning hour, the House shall proceed to 18 consider bills, joint resolutions, and resolutions on the Calendar which shall be 19 arranged in the following order:

- 20
- 21 1. Senate bills on third reading.
- 22 2. House bills on third reading.
- 23 3. House bills on second reading.
- 24 4. House bills and joint resolutions returned from Senate with amendments.
- 25 5. Resolutions.
- 26 6. Memorial and commending resolutions.
- 27 7. House bills returned by Governor without approval.
- 28 8. House bills returned by Governor with recommendations.
- 29 9. Senate bills returned by Governor without approval.
- 30 10. Senate bills returned by Governor with recommendations.
- 31 11. House bills and resolutions in conference.
- 32 12. Senate bills and resolutions in conference.
- 33 13. Unfinished business – House and Senate bills and joint resolutions.
- 34 14. Senate bills on second reading.
- 35 15. House bills on first reading.
- 36 16. Resolutions reported.
- 37 17. Senate bills and joint resolutions referred.
- 38 18. Bills referred.
- 39 19. Resolutions referred.
- 40 20. Resolutions presented.

1 The House may direct that bills and resolutions of either house be divided on 2 the Calendar between the designations "Uncontested Calendar" and "Regular 3 Calendar" and be considered in such order. When such a division is directed for 4 bills and resolutions on the Calendar, the Uncontested Calendar shall not include 5 any bill or resolution (i) which received a dissenting vote or an abstention in 6 committee, or (ii) to which objection is made by any member. Any bill or 7 resolution shall be removed from the Uncontested Calendar and placed on the 8 Regular Calendar at the request of any member rising from his seat for that 9 purpose and stating the request for such legislation to be moved. Once legislation
10 is moved to the Regular Calendar there it shall remain.

11
12 Rule 50. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to see that the printing and engrossing, 13 when ordered, shall be done in such time that the bills and resolutions may be 14 acted on according to their priorities on the Calendar.

15
16 Rule 51. If any bill or resolution shall not be ready for consideration when it is 17 reached on the Calendar it shall be passed by and be allowed to retain its position
18 on the Calendar. When the Calendar has been called through, it may be called 19 again in order to dispose of any business that may then be ready. If there be none, 20 the business of the morning hour shall be resumed.

21
22 Rule 52. The regular order of business herein established shall not be changed,
23 nor shall any special order be made, except by vote of two-thirds of the members
24 present. However, a majority may postpone the Calendar not exceeding one day at 25 a time, or pass by any subject coming up in order without changing its place, or 26 agree to a joint order with the Senate, or postpone or discharge any special order.

27 28 V. Conduct of Business.

29 30 Order and Decorum.

31
32 Rule 53. The Speaker shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points of 33 order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose, and 34 shall decide questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House.
35 If the decision relate to a question of decorum or propriety of conduct, it shall not 36 be debatable; if it relate to the priority of business or the relevancy or applicability 37 of propositions, the appeal may be debated, but no member shall speak on it more 38 than once except by leave of the House.

39

1 Rule 54. When a member rises to speak he shall respectfully address,
2 "Mr. Speaker," standing in his place; he shall confine himself strictly to the 3 question before the House, and when he has finished he shall sit down.
4

5 Rule 55. When two or more members rise at the same time the Speaker shall 6 name the person to speak.
7

8 Rule 56. Every motion or proposition shall be reduced to writing, if desired by 9 the Speaker or any member, and shall be delivered at the Clerk's table to be there
10 read; and the question shall be stated by the Chair before the same shall be 11 debated. When the reading of any paper in possession of the House, not being the 12 precise matter upon which the House is acting, is called for, and objection is made 13 by any member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the House without 14 debate. Any motion or proposition may be withdrawn by the mover at any time 15 before a decision, amendment, or other action of the body upon it, except a motion
16 to reconsider which shall not be withdrawn without leave of the House.
17

18 Rule 57. No member shall in debate use any language or gesture calculated to 19 wound, offend, or insult another member.
20

21 Rule 58. If any member, in speaking, transgress the Rules of the House, the 22 Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case the member
23 called to order shall immediately take his seat unless permitted to explain. If there 24 be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be final. If the decision be in favor of 25 the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; otherwise, he shall not 26 proceed, except by leave of the House. For frequent or repeated violations of 27 order, especially if persisted in after the admonition of the Speaker, a member shall 28 be liable to the censure of the House.
29

30 Rule 59. If any member be called to order by another member for words
31 spoken, the words excepted to shall be immediately taken down in writing in order
32 that the Speaker and House may be better able to judge the matter.
33

34 Rule 60. No member shall, while the House is sitting, interrupt or hinder its 35 business by standing up, leaving his place, moving about the Hall, engaging in 36 conversation, expressing approval or disapproval of any of the proceedings, or by 37 any other conduct tending to disorder and confusion.
38

39 Rule 61. No member shall speak more than once on any question until all 40 others have spoken who desire to do so, nor more than twice, without the consent 41 of a majority of the members present.

1 Ascertaining the Question.

2
3 Rule 62. If the question for decision includes several distinct propositions any 4 member may have the same divided, but a motion to strike out and insert shall not 5 be so divided; nor shall a motion to strike out, being lost, preclude either
6 amendment or a motion to strike out and insert. In filling blanks, the question shall 7 be put first upon the largest sum and the longest time or the broadest question.

8
9 Rule 62(a). No motion or proposition, or subject different from that under 10 consideration, shall be admitted under color of amendment.

11
12 Rule 62(b). The Speaker shall determine all questions of germaneness relevant
13 to any legislation under consideration by the House including House legislation
14 and any amendments thereto communicated by the Senate or the Governor to the 15 House for its action.

16
17 Rule 63. When a question is before the House no motion shall be received 18 unless specially provided for except to adjourn, to pass by, to lay upon the table, to 19 postpone for a specified time or purpose, to refer or rerefer, to amend, or to strike
20 from the Calendar, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in 21 which they are arranged.

22
23 Rule 64. Upon the motion to pass by, the mover shall be allowed two minutes 24 to state the reason for his motion, and one member opposed to the motion shall be 25 allowed a like time to object. The motion to lay upon the table, for the previous 26 question, and for the pending question shall not be debated; nor shall debate be 27 allowed on a motion to take up a subject from the table or to reconsider any 28 question which was not debated. When a question not debatable is before the 29 House all incidental questions arising after it is stated to the House shall be decided 30 and settled, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate; and the same rule
31 shall apply to incidental questions rising after any question is put to the House.

32
33 Pending and Previous Questions.

34
35 Rule 65. Pending a debate, any member who obtains the floor for the purpose 36 only, and submits no other motion or remark, may move for the "previous 37 question" or the "pending question," and in either case the motion shall be 38 forthwith put to the House. Two-thirds of the members present shall be required to 39 order the main question; however, a majority may require an immediate vote upon 40 the pending question, whatever it may be.

41

1 Rule 66. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question
2 now be put?" If carried, its effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the 3 House to a direct vote upon a motion to refer or rerefer, if pending; then upon 4 amendments reported by a committee, if any; then upon pending amendments; and 5 then upon the main question. If upon the motion for the previous question, the 6 main question be not ordered, debate may continue as if the motion had not been 7 made.

8 9 Taking the Vote.

10
11 Rule 67. The Speaker shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.
12 Questions shall be distinctly put in substantially the following forms, viz.: "As 13 many as agree that, etc. (as the question may be), say 'Aye,'" and "Those opposed
14 say 'No.'" If the Speaker doubts or a division is called for, the House shall divide 15 with those in the affirmative of the question rising first from their seats and 16 afterwards those in the negative, or by a show of hands in the affirmative and then 17 in the negative. If required, the Speaker shall cause the result to be ascertained by 18 a count.

19
20 Rule 68. The yeas and nays on any question may be called for at any time 21 before proceeding to another question or proposition but, being refused, they shall 22 not be again demanded on the same question. Any member shall have a right to 23 vote at any time before the decision is announced by the Chair.

24
25 Rule 69. Upon a division of the House on any question, a member who is 26 present and fails to vote shall on the demand of any member be counted on the 27 negative of the question and when the yeas and nays are taken shall, in addition, be 28 entered on the Journal as present and not voting. However, no member who has an 29 immediate and personal interest in the result of the question shall either vote or be 30 counted upon it.

31 32 Reconsideration.

33
34 Rule 70. When a question has been decided it may be reconsidered on the 35 motion of any member who voted with the prevailing side provided it be made on 36 the same day. If such action has not been communicated to the Senate, such 37 motion may be made within the next two days of actual session. The motion may 38 be entered as a matter of privilege and shall take precedence of everything except 39 special orders and other questions of privilege and be disposed of in the morning
40 hour or with the Calendar, as the case may be. All motions to reconsider shall be 41 decided by a majority of the votes of the members present.

1 Bills and Amendments.

2
3 Rule 71. Every bill shall be read or printed on the Calendar by title on three 4 different calendar days in the House previous to its being passed, and it shall be 5 distinctly announced or set out at each reading or printing on the Calendar, whether 6 it is the first, second, or third time.

7
8 Rule 72. The first reading or printing on the Calendar of the House bill shall be 9 for information merely, and it shall go to second reading or printing on the 10 Calendar without a question.

11
12 Rule 73. Upon the second reading or printing on the Calendar of a House bill it
13 shall be open to amendment or to referral or rereferral or to any of the motions
14 provided for in Rule 63, and the final question shall be "Whether it shall be 15 engrossed and read or printed on the Calendar a third time?" Upon the third
16 reading or printing on the Calendar of a Senate bill it shall be open to amendment
17 or to referral or rereferral or to any of the motions provided in Rule 63.

18
19 Rule 74. A House bill ordered to be engrossed shall not have its third reading
20 or printing on the Calendar until the engrossment is actually and properly done.
21 However, in the case of a Senate bill, the engrossment shall only apply to such 22 amendments as may have been made in the House.

23
24 Rule 75. No amendment to a House bill shall be received upon its third reading
25 or printing on the Calendar by way of rider or otherwise, and no amendment
26 involving an additional appropriation shall be added to the general appropriation 27 bill, and no amendment to increase any tax shall be added to any tax measure, 28 unless either such amendment be to carry into effect an existing law or unless it
29 received the vote required to pass the bill itself. A Senate amendment to a House
30 bill to be concurred in, or a conference report to be adopted, must receive the same 31 recorded vote as required to pass the bill itself. A bill at any time before its 32 passage may be referred or rereferred.

33
34 Rule 75(a). If the Senate refuses to concur in the amendments of the House and 35 so communicates such action to the House, the House may vote to recede from its 36 amendments and subsequently pass the legislation in the form originally passed by 37 the Senate or insist on its amendments and request a committee of conference with 38 the Senate. Conversely, the House in considering Senate amendments to House 39 legislation shall wait for communication by the Senate that they have voted to 40 insist on their amendments and request a committee of conference whereby the 41 House may agree to the request for a committee of conference.

1 Rule 75(b). Upon an affirmative vote to form a committee of conference, the 2 Speaker shall appoint the House membership to the committee. A majority of the 3 members of each house on the conference committee shall agree to the committee
4 of conference report prior to its submission and consideration by the House. If a 5 conference committee is unable to reach agreement and reports such action to the 6 House, the Speaker may appoint new conferees or upon the motion of a member
7 and an affirmative vote of the House a new set of conferees shall be appointed. In 8 addition, if a committee of conference report is considered and rejected, the House 9 may agree by a majority vote of the members present to request an additional 10 committee of conference.

11
12 Rule 76. On the third reading or printing on the Calendar of a bill, the question
13 shall be, "Shall the bill pass?"

14
15 Rule 77. The title of a bill and all amendments offered shall be entered upon 16 the Journal, except that amendments in the nature of substitutes may be printed
17 separately and only the titles thereof entered upon the Journal.

18 19 Withdrawals of Exhibits.

20
21 Rule 78. Original papers, filed as exhibits with any bill or resolution, may be 22 withdrawn by the patron or he may leave attested copies, for which he shall pay the 23 Clerk at the rate provided by law for other copies made by him.

24 25 Messages.

26
27 Rule 79. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, without any special order therefor, to 28 communicate to the Senate any action of the House upon business coming from the 29 Senate or upon matters requiring the concurrence of that body; however, no such 30 communication shall be made in relation to any action of the House while it 31 remains open for consideration.

32 33 Manual and Rules.

34
35 Rule 80. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual
36 shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they 37 are not inconsistent with the Rules of the House and such joint rules as are or may 38 from time to time be established by the two houses of the General Assembly.

39
40 Rule 81. The Rules of the House shall be adopted in even numbered years by a 41 majority vote of members elected and shall remain in effect for two years
42 coinciding with the terms of members. The rules may be suspended by a vote of 43 two-thirds of the members elected to be ascertained by an actual division of the 44 House except as prohibited by the Constitution; provided that a motion to

1 discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill shall require a majority of 2 those voting, which shall include two-fifths of the members elected to the House,
3 the vote thereon to be taken by yeas and nays and recorded in the Journal; and 4 provided further, that a motion to dispense with the printing and reading of a bill,
5 or its printing on the Calendar, or either, shall not be entertained, except as 6 provided by the Constitution.
7

8 A proposition to change a rule of the House shall be submitted in writing and 9 forthwith printed. In its printed form it shall lie upon the Speaker's table for five 10 days and be read by the House during the morning hour of each day during that 11 time. At the expiration of five days it shall be ready for consideration and may be 12 adopted or rejected by a majority vote of the members present; provided that as to 13 all resolutions or bills which involve an appropriation or expenditure of money by 14 the Commonwealth, or which may create a charge upon the treasury, the rule of the 15 House shall not be changed or suspended save by a vote of two-thirds of the 16 members present to be ascertained by an actual division of the House.
17

18 Upon a motion to suspend a rule of the House the mover shall be allowed two 19 minutes to state the reasons for his motion, and one member opposed to the motion 20 shall be allowed a like time to object.
21

22 Hall of the House of Delegates.

23

24 Rule 82. The Hall of the House of Delegates shall be used for no other purpose
25 than the sessions of the House and for meetings of the committees and members of 26 the legislature on public affairs except by vote of the House or the Rules
27 Committee or with the approval of the Speaker when the House is not in session.
28

29 Rule 83. Only members of the General Assembly, former members, members
30 of the Congress of the United States, State officers, judges, officers and employees
31 of the General Assembly, and such other persons as the Speaker may designate 32 shall be permitted on the floor of the House during the session; however, the 33 privileges granted hereunder shall not be exercised by any person having business 34 for compensation before the House or any committee thereof and the officers of 35 this body shall enforce this rule under the direction of the Speaker.
36

37 General Assembly Building.

38

39 Rule 84. The area of the General Assembly Building assigned to the members 40 of the House of Delegates, their legislative support staff, the clerical staff of the 41 House of Delegates, the facilities and space for those charged with the 42 maintenance, repair, and security of such building, and such space designated for 43 the news media shall not be utilized or occupied as office space by any other 44 person or persons, except by vote of the House or the Rules Committee.
