

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2000

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor John H. Hager.

The Reverend Donald F. Runion, Jr., Pastor, Mount Vernon Baptist Church, Glen Allen, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Everlasting Father, we give thanks for the beauty of this day, for the prosperity and vitality of our great Commonwealth, and for the opportunity of public service that this assembly provides.

We ask Your blessing on those who serve in the legislative process. We are thankful for their commitment to public service and for their earnest desire to serve the people of our state faithfully and well.

Preserve them from being overwhelmed by the stresses and demands of the legislative process. Grant them the gift of clear thinking and sound reasoning. May they discern the right path and walk in it.

May the decisions made here be a source of blessing for the people of this Commonwealth.

May the elderly find that the legislature is mindful of their vulnerability and vigilant to consider their needs.

May the children of our state discover that they are loved and valued, and that this body is mindful of the need to protect their welfare.

May the hard-working men and women who are the building blocks of our state's economy and the foundations of our homes and families, find that those who serve in this body are mindful of the trust given to them.

Guide the deliberations of this body to that end. Amen.
