

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 2010

The Senate met at 12 m. and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor William T. Bolling.

The Reverend Gerry Creedon, St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, Arlington, Virginia, offered the following prayer:

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for justice and righteousness.

We lift up our eyes to the God of compassion and justice from whence comes our strength.

We seek compassion in all of our deliberations. We have witnessed the outpouring of generosity to our neighbors in Haiti in their time of distress. May that same compassionate spirit also guide our actions on behalf of our neighbors here at home.

We are aware from the crisis in our economy how the sin of greed can bring pain and destruction. May we be mindful that a generous spirit is needed if we are to reconstruct an economy here in Virginia that will serve all and exclude none. We know that the moral measure of our institutions is how they care for the most vulnerable among us. Let their need be our first concern.

May the spirit of love lead us to a new dominion of justice in the Old Dominion, as we serve the common good and the Commonwealth.

Amen.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names:

Blevins, Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Hanger, Herring, Houck, Howell, Hurt, Locke, Lucas, Marsden, Marsh, McDougle, McEachin, McWaters, Miller, J.C., Miller, Y.B., Newman, Norment, Northam, Obenshain, Petersen, Puckett, Puller, Quayle, Reynolds, Ruff, Saslaw, Smith, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Wampler, Watkins, Whipple.

A quorum was present.

After the roll call, Senators Barker, Martin, and Ticer notified the Clerk of their presence.

On motion of Senator Herring, the reading of the Journal was waived.
